PLEASE NOTE:

- Group numbers are limited due to space restrictions at Bray Golf Club so immediate confirmation, submission of registration form and payment of fees (see below for details) are recommended if membership is offered to guarantee a place
- Our main means of communicating with members is via the group’s website: www.thebrayheads3a.ie , which contains comprehensive information about the group and its activities and we urge members to check it regularly. We also send group emails with updates and on specific issues and we can receive/send email at: info@thebrayheads3a.ie. We do not communicate by post.
- In return for Bray Golf Club providing a great venue for our meetings, members of The Bray Heads U3A are expected to show consideration to Golf Club staff and members and respect the Club’s property, rules and dress code (smart casual).
- In accordance with our Privacy Policy, the personal details supplied on this form will be held in summary form in a secure computer database in full compliance with GDPR requirements. It will be used solely for the purposes of administration and communication relating to The Bray Heads U3A Group and will never be supplied to an outside agency or third party. Some basic profile data from registration forms will be available for members only to view on a password protected page of the website to facilitate members getting to know each other. You are asked on the Registration Form to indicate whether or not you are willing to share your email address and/or phone number.
- We sometimes take photographs during meetings to display on our website. In line with GDPR requirements, members who do not wish to be included in the photographs should notify a Team Member before or after photographs being taken.
